
Connections

Posted by admin - 2008/01/02 01:29

You can connect with other PaddockGossip.com registered users by navigating to their profile page and selecting 'Request connection' from the Connections Menu at the top of the screen. Like facebook.com there are a number of options to describe your relationship with the other user. You can also send a welcome message and add comments.

You can change the status of any of your connections by selecting 'Manage my Connections' from the Connections menu in the profile page.

=====