im going with willie wonka an few others :blink:

i go to all irish road races & think this is the best craic of them all!

purely for racing probably kells & skerries are bit better but for a weekend away at the bikes...athea is second to none anyone know if michael dunlop is going to be there, the dunlops used like this meeting a lot & its where william got his first road race win a few years ago on the small bike
